Construction Administration

FMD can provide invaluable services as the owner's agent during construction of restoration projects by providing experienced bidding, scheduling and construction management services.

Acting on the client's behalf, FMD prepares and coordinates the project bid process. The firm sees that the documents are properly prepared, the bids distributed to qualified contractors and the project fairly awarded to the best bidder. FMD protects the client's interest through its technical expertise and practical industry knowledge.

Knowledgeable of project requirements, contractor capabilities and the client's expectations, FMD can minimize friction and optimize schedules to meet timetables and keep the project on track and on budget.

As project administrator and owner's agent, FMD assists the owner by coordinating the activities of the contractors, craftsmen, suppliers, consultants and other project participants. This balancing act of scheduling, planning, budget and support paperwork has earned FMD industry respect and the repeat business of important clients and significant projects.
